We are deeply pained to announce the occurrence, in Marshall county, Miss., near Chulahoms, on Saturday last, of one of the most wicked and nefarious deeds of which we can possibly conceive. The retribution, howover, was as fearful as the deed was dark and damning. On Saturday morning, the wife of a respectable planter of Marshall county, (Miss.) left her dwelling and went to the field, near the house, for the purpose of seeing to some of her domestic arrangements, when she was seized by a negro man, belonging to her husband, who was plowing in the

At the close of the eclipse the heavens were entirely obscured. During the greatest obscuration there was a considerable diminution of light, a slight fall in the mercury, and a gloomy aspect was imparted to objects on the surface of the earth, like a sudden twilight. Thousands congratulated themselves that they had even so good un opportunity of witnessing the phenomenon, after so unpropitious a day."

A decegate was after the Deputy U. S. Marshal, we understand, yester day. He has also received direct orders from the department at Washington to proceed immediately to the territory and notify all settlers, not licensed to remain there, to leave at once. If not, by being thus notified, he is authorized to call upon the commanding officer at Fort Lepenworth to furnish him with a sufficient force to remove them. He will visit the upper portion of the country in a few days. Be patient, gentlemen; you will all have an opportunity to go over there shortly.—Weston (Mo.)
